

What is...

edcamp

St. Augustine?

The Basics

edcamp
St. Augustine

Who

Teachers from St. Johns County, all over Florida, and beyond!

What

A day of collaborative sharing and networking. Four rooms, four time slots, free food, prizes. We start with a schedule, but the attendees make the agenda. The sessions are led by and for the teachers.

When

Saturday, May 9, from 8am - 3pm

Where

Palencia Elementary School

Why

Because together, our ideas have power.

SJCSD Fun Fact! EdCamp St. Augustine attendees will receive CEUs for joining us, so make sure to register on SunGard.

What will we see at EdCamp St. Augustine?

edcamp

St. Augustine

When you arrive at EdCamp St. Augustine, you'll check in at the front table. In the room, you'll find breakfast treats, coffee, and a lot of teachers! Some are from St. Johns County, but we're also expecting several guests from out of town. You'll see the big board. That's a grid of our session rooms and times. The big board is where teachers can check to see what sessions they want to go to. There are always some open spots on the board—that's so if a teacher doesn't see her favorite topic, she can put it up on the board, and facilitate a session. Teachers shouldn't worry about facilitating a session, though. It's just introducing the topic, and asking a question or two to get things going. Once that happens, it's amazing how much the conversation flows!

8-9:30

Opening

Sign in, sign up, network, and eat! We'll also be having tours led by Palencia's student ambassadors.

9:30—10:00

Welcoming

We'll share some opening remarks, finalize the big board, and send people on to their first sessions!

What will we see at EdCamp St. Augustine?

10:00—10:45 Session 1

11:00—11:45 Session 2

12:00-12:55 Lunch

1:00—1:45 Session 3

2:00—2:45 Session 4

3:00-3:30 Post EdCamp
Fun!

We'll have sessions in rooms spread around our building. We have a fifteen minute buffer after every session so teachers can let conversations end naturally, and still make their way to their next session.

During lunch, we'll be hosting an App Smackdown where attendees can share their favorite iPad and web apps.

We'll have sessions in rooms spread around our building. We have a fifteen minute buffer after every session so teachers can let conversations end naturally, and still make their way to their next session.

As a wrap-up, we'll be using a random name picker to dole out what is turning out to be a ridiculously good pile of door prizes including software licenses, tech tools, books, clothes, and more!

EdCamp fun fact: EdCamps are run on a vote with your feet rule. If you find yourself in a session that isn't working for you...no one will be offended, head out and find one that is!

It's a social event!

Just as important as the information at an EdCamp are the relationships that teachers make. Attendees connections with people from other schools, other districts, and places all over the state.

Because of that, please be on the look out for the EdCamp St. Augustine meet-up! We haven't picked a location yet, but on Friday night we'll be taking over some St. Augustine restaurant for an evening of connection, fun, and friendship.

For the teachers who are staying in St. Augustine for the weekend, there may also be an EdCamp after party, dinner somewhere near the beach. Let the lifelong friendships begin!

Signing Up!

Register: edcampstaugustine.weebly.com/register

Follow us on Twitter: @edcampstaug

And on Facebook: facebook.com/edcampstaug